

PRIVACY STATEMENT

My Foundations Youth Housing Limited respect your privacy and are committed to handling your personal information in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth).

Personal information that we collect and store may be used by us and shared with others so that we can deliver the best services possible and meet our legal duties. We may also use your information for reporting purposes to meet our contractual or regulatory obligations, or to improve our services.

We will collect and manage your information in accordance with our legal duties.

We will seek your permission when sharing or disclosing your information with third parties unless we are legally required or authorised otherwise to share the information.

Where possible we will collect personal and/or sensitive information from you direct. You can choose not to share your personal and/or sensitive information with us, however please be aware that this may also mean we are unable to provide services to you (our primary and main purpose is delivering safe and affordable housing for young people).

Information that we hold may be stored using an overseas data storage provider.

Our Privacy Policy has information about how you can access and/or correct your personal information and how you can make a complaint about your privacy.
